

Abstract

A pharmaceutical combined preparation containing a therapeutic protein having SH-groups which are nitrosated and a compound containing thiol groups and having an average molecular weight of at most 10.000.